

ABSTRACT

An online algorithm exchange is presented herein. The online algorithm exchange provides access to a plurality of coloring algorithms from any number of developers. Users
5 can select a particular algorithm for use as well as specify particular color measurements as inputs thereto. The color measurements can be selected from a database at the algorithm exchange, or provided by the user from a client terminal.

09971576-100401